"Les Miserables," one of the most popular musicals of all time, is based on a novel of the same name by French author Victor Hugo. Published in 1862, the book referenced what were already historic events. This inspired him to write Les Miserables. Anyone who reads the novel can see plainly that Hugo obviously favored the revolutionaries. This rebellion last only 2 days (June 5, 1832 through June 7, 1832) and resulted in over 100 deaths and almost 600 people wounded.
