

Download The Great Gatsby Letter To Daisy

In the book Daisy was suppose to wait for Gatsby while he was in the army, but over time she became lonely. That's when Daisy met her husband Tom. Right before Daisy's wedding she receives a letter from Gatsby that almost caused her to throw off the wedding and reacts drastically. Jordan Baker, her best friend, throws daisy in an ice cold bath to bring her back to reality. While in the bath ...Daisy goes from hysterically laughing to crying from sadness in the Scene when Gatsby is throwing his shirts at Daisy (The Great). Both of these moments for Daisy show how she is prone to being bipolar. Through having the same origins and being bipolar Daisy was inspired by Fitzgerald wife, Zelda. F.Daisy, if you leave Tom, I promise to be all that he is not to you. I will touch those tender bruises, all those places where he has injured you and I will heal them all with a gentle kiss. You will never have to be afraid to speak what is on your mind and on your heart.Quick Answer. Readers don't know what the letter contained or who wrote it, but we can infer that it was a letter from Gatsby, since Daisy had a brief and passionate affair with him.
